Rebecca Judd is one of Australia's best-known personalities, working as a television presenter and brand ambassador for some of the country's biggest companies. Bec is also the face of high-end jeweller Paul Bram Diamonds for a decade, as well as being an ambassador for Adairs, Melbourne City Land Rover, Chadstone Shopping Centre and The Skincare Company. Beyond this, she has worked with a widespread list of household names including Country Road, Reece, L'Oreal Paris, ghd, Nine West, Freedom Furniture and Lipton.

Her confidence, poise and flawless beauty have landed her multi-year contracts with Channel Nine as the host of popular travel show Postcards and previously presenting the weekend weather on Nine News. Although she is a natural on-screen, in 2017 Bec spread her wings and joined Kiis FM radio as the co-host for the 3PM Pick-Up.

Bec's passion for interior design and her distinct sense of style has led to many notable opportunities. She has designed multiple sell out ranges of bedding and soft furnishings for Adairs and worked with highly regarded property developer R.Corp. In 2014, she launched the webTV mini-series 'The Style School' which fast became an online sensation, generating more than 250,000 hits on Bec's website alone. This success was followed up with a second series in 2015 renovating a Mentone home then a Prahran townhouse in 2016 which generated the highest ratings to date. The much-anticipated 4th series will be a full renovation on a property on the Mornington Peninsula.

In 2012, Bec launched her fashion and lifestyle blog Rebecca Judd Loves (RJL). RJL spawned from her desire to share the products and experiences she is lucky enough to discover. RJL quickly developed a loyal following and is one of the most highly read blogs in Australia.

Her greatest achievements to date are her children, Oscar, Billie and twins Tom and Darcy.
